Other Guard Divisions Will Retain Designations to Preserve Traditions

ORDERS SOLDIERS FREED 48 HOURS AFTER ARRIVAL

War Department Announces Plan to Retain Army of 509,000 Men

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 29.—Retention of the names of fourteen national guard and national army divisions with brilliant war records in the permanent military establishment in order to preserve their traditions was announced today by General March.

For this purpose in the 21 divisions proposed to be organized in the new army 14 will receive the following designations:

First division, Camp Pike, Ark.; Second, Camp Dodge, Iowa; Third, Camp Lee, Va.; Fourth, Camp Kearney, Cal.; Fifth, Panama Canal Zone; 6th, Honolulu; 7th, divided between Philippines, Alaska and Mexican border.

28th, to be based on Camp Devens; 27th, Camp Upton, N. Y.; 28th, Camp Dix, N. J.; 29th, Camp Meade, Md.; 30th, Camp Jackson, S. C.; 32nd, Camp Custer, Mich.; 33rd, Camp Grant, Ill.; 36th, Camp Travis, Tex.; 37th, Camp Sherman, Ohio; 81st, Camp Taylor, Ky.; Camp Gordon, Ga.; 89th, Camp Funston, Kas.; 91st, Camp Lewis, Wash. D. C.

The 42nd (Rainbow) division will be the cavalry division in the new organization. It will be organized in the southern department and its men will be drawn from all states, maintaining in this respect the all-American character which was obtained in the original organization.

The first seven divisions are to retain their designations of the seven divisions now in France, comprising the First and Second Army corps.

In case where a division has been given the designation of a national guard or army division, it will be recruited from the district surrounding the camp named as its base and from which the original division of that designation was drawn.

In making this announcement General March said that the war department was proceeding with the organization of the army on the basis of a peace strength of 509,000 men. The tactical organization will comprise five army corps of 20 infantry divisions and one cavalry division. Whether this organization will become permanent he said, depends entirely on future legislation.

General March announced today that he had ordered soldiers discharged within 48 hours after arrival at demobilization camps unless special conditions made it impossible. He said the demobilization total now had passed the million and a half mark.

SHERMAN'S NAMESAKE AGREES WITH GENERAL; WANTS TO SEE HIS DADDY

Baby Donald Sherman Vanatta is five months old, and he may agree with his namesake, Sherman, as to the definition of war, for he has never seen his soldier-daddy.

DONALD SHERMAN VANATTA.

The war-baby is the son of John S. Vanatta, who is a second lieutenant in a band with the 84th division. Mrs. Vanatta, the baby's mother, lives on Route 2, Hebron.

Lieutenant Vanatta is looking forward to the time when he will return to the states, which he expects to be soon.

Perhaps you know of other Licking county babies who have not seen their fathers, whose pictures have not been printed in The Advocate. Phone this office, giving the names and The Advocate will get the picture.

MAKE HONEST TAX RETURN OR YOUR NEIGHBOR BEARS HEAVIER BURDEN

County Auditor Wilson Gives Information On Valuation of Property For County Tax Returns—Each Person Must Make Report On Property.

Suggestions and instructions to taxpayers for making returns for taxation in Licking county, have been issued by County Auditor Fred S. Wilson and careful study of the information contained, will enable all persons to make proper returns on their property in accordance with the law.

Attention is called to the fact that persons who fail to make returns or value their property too low, place the extra burden of tax upon their neighbors who honestly conform with the law.

Auditor Wilson's statement follows: Personal returns of personal property should be made by each person owning personal property.

The time of making voluntary personal returns this year is April 14 to April 30. Blanks will be distributed by mail outside the city, and in the city they will be left at each home and place of business. Should any one be unable, apply at the County Auditor's Office for same.

There has been no change except in report of live stock, which has been classified.

Property must be listed at its true value in money. Last year some automobiles were listed too low. The return of personal property and the tax levied thereon, is for the period from April 7, 1918 to April 13, 1919. The laws of Ohio provide that money or other taxable property converted into non-taxable, such as Ohio Corporations, U. S. Bonds, Ohio Bank Stocks etc., is taxable from the date of purchase of said property or to the date on which the one making the return acquired the same.

U. S. Bonds are not taxable, but the money is taxable for the time held if only for one month before same is converted into bonds.

The taxing authorities are only carrying out and applying your laws, and we hope the tax payers of this county will not ask their neighbors to pay a part of their taxes.

The man or woman who fails to make a full return, places a part of their burden on their neighbors and friends who do make a just return.

To secure the $100.00 exemption allowed by law, returns must be made during April 1919.

The law does not require the County Auditor or assessors to fill out returns but simply to "swear" the individual making return.

Returns may be mailed in original envelope by changing address and placing a three cent stamp thereon.

VOLUNTEER CALL HEARD ON RHINE

Men Are Told That War Department Seeks to Relieve Volunteers In Regular Division.

(Associated Press Telegram) Coblenz, Friday, March 28.—The announcement by the war department of its intention to send from the United States volunteers enlisted for use in replacing members of the permanent army of occupation who desire to leave the service reached Third army headquarters today.

The announcement was made by the department to allay unrest among the regular army divisions which are due for replacements and which contain a large percentage of men who volunteered for the duration of the war, and among national guardsmen who are eager to return home as soon as possible.

A plan also is being worked out for the segregation into the regular army divisions of the army of occupation of regular officers and such other officers as to desire to remain in the regular army service. The department by this means, contemplates relieving as soon as feasible these reserve and national guard officers who desire to return to the United States for business or other reasons.

(Associated Press Telegram) Archangel, Friday, March 29.—Allied army was active today in the vicinity of the village of Bolshoi Ozer, but the cloudy weather hindered the work of the aviators who were observing the effects of the cannonade. In the meantime the allied forces holding the road on both sides of the town were engaged in strengthening their positions.

A small infantry attack was made on the allied positions on the Vega front on Wednesday. In spite of a bombardment which preceded the attack, the Bolsheviks were repulsed and lost heavily. The allies suffered only two casualties.

MILITARY POLICY IS UNCHANGED BY HUNGARY EVENTS

Gen. March Says Movement of Troops to U. S. Will Continue

SOVIET GOVERNMENT WILL ALLOW MISSIONS TO LEAVE

Rumanians and Czechoslovaks Take Military Action on Hungary

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 29.—Recent events in Hungary, General March announced today, have resulted in no change in the military policy of the United States so far as the war department has been advised. Return of troops from France is proceeding even faster than scheduled originally, he said, and nothing had occurred to interfere with this movement.

Troop movement homeward during the month of March, General March said, aggregated 244,183 against an estimate previously made for the month of 200,000.

ODESSA SITUATION CRITICAL. (Associated Press Telegram) Paris, March 29.—The situation for the allies at Odessa is still critical, according to the last dispatches from that region. ## DETROIT TOWNS KEEP EASTERN TIME; LIKE IT

(Associated Press Telegram) Detroit, March 29.—Detroit and a number of other Michigan cities including Flint, Pontiac and Alpena, will not be affected by the advance of an hour in local time throughout the country tonight. ## MAN WHO LED THE THIRTY-SEVENTH

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, March 29.—General Iliescu, former chief of the Rumanian general staff is quoted in the Petit Parisien this morning as declaring that the appointment of General Mangin to the command of the allied forces in southeastern Europe confirms a plan which he submitted to French general headquarters some time ago. This plan, the general stated, was the creation of zones of defense, with the aid of Poland, Rumania, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia against the spread of Bolshevism.

Reports from Paris Thursday connected General Mangin with some plan in process of formation by the allies for dealing with the situation in southeastern Europe brought to a crisis by the Hungarian overturn. There has been no definite announcement however of the adoption of such a plan and the latest previous advice from Paris indicated that no decision regarding Mangin reached by the allied authorities.

WOUNDED ARE CARRIED HOME IN FIRST TRANS-CONTINENTAL HOSPITAL TRAIN

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 29.—Premier Clemenceau today received Josephus Daniels, American Secretary of the Navy, at his office.

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, March 29.—(Havas.)—A rumor was in circulation here last night that the interallied mission at Danzig had been interned. This morning's newspapers, however, declare that no confirmation of this rumor had been received in French official quarters.

According to the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail, a telegram received at the French foreign office reported serious disorders had occurred at Danzig, instigated by the Pan-Germans. The demonstrations are declared to have been directed at the interallied mission. Although no hostile action was taken against it the mission is reported to have been virtually stopped from functioning, its work being hampered and it being isolated from the Poles.

All the newspapers agree in the view that if it were established that violence had been employed against the mission an extremely critical situation would be created.

WANTS RHINE AS FRONTIER

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, Friday, March 28.—(Havas.)—In laying her claims before the council of four today, France asked, first of all, that her boundaries, as fixed by the treaty of Paris, March 30, 1814, be restored to her, together with the Saar basin. In the Rhine province on the left bank of the Rhine, it was stipulated, the Germans should have political autonomy but should not be permitted to establish fortifications, occupy the territory and have armed forces nor control the railways. Thus the Rhine would serve as the natural frontier of France.

The treaty of Paris in 1914 provided that France renounce her claims on Belgium and the left bank of the Rhine and return to the boundaries as they existed in 1871, before the revolution. This compelled France to confine herself to the provinces of Alsace and Lorraine, west of the Rhine, those territories having been under French control since 1659. It was erroneously reported from Paris last night that France had demanded her 1814 frontiers, which would have excluded Alsace from her claims before the peace conference.

First trans-continental hospital train showing Red Cross worker lighting cigar for one of the wounded men.

FACTORIES ADOPT NEW TIME

MERCHANTS TO LET CLOCKS ALONE

City Will Enjoy Rare Privilege of Having Two Kinds of Time By Which Business Relations Will Be Maintained—Churches Use Old Time Tomorrow.

The matter of the changing of time—one hour—beginning tomorrow morning, or the pushing forward of the clocks is still in the balance.

At a meeting of the manufacturers held last night they decided to operate their plants on the new time in order to avoid confusion and coincident with the railroad also, to avoid any legal litigation that might arise over the difference in time. They expressed the opinion that disadvantage would arise over the confusion.

However, the merchants of the city are going to stay with the old time for the present, at least, and as the mayor is opposed to the change and is out of the city, the town clock will not be pushed forward an hour Sunday morning.

All the churches in the city, including both Protestant and Catholic, will hold the services at the regular hours (eastern time) Sunday. People who advance their clocks will have an extra hour to get to church.

The matter will probably come up for a definite settlement by the city council and until that time it seems everyone will be "on their own."

While the change, which means advance of two hours in this district, will be hardship, many feel that it will have to be complied with as it is a federal law, and to oppose it would mean confusion during the months that the daylight-saving law is in effect.

RUMANIAN URGED MANGIN COMMAND

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, March 29.—General Iliescu, former chief of the Rumanian general staff is quoted in the Petit Parisien this morning as declaring that the appointment of General Mangin to the command of the allied forces in southeastern Europe confirms a plan which he submitted to French general headquarters some time ago. ## AVIATOR WHO "BOMBED" CITY FALLS WITH PLANE AT STEUBENVILLE

Lieutenant Swan, the aviator who bombed the war services airplane over Newark yesterday, was injured while making a landing at Steubenville this morning, according to Associated Press dispatches.

The aviator gave an exhibition flight over Newark at 2:15 yesterday, after having come from Columbus and left Newark for Zanesville.

According to the story from Steubenville, Lieutenant Swan was painfully injured when the plane collided with a bunker on the golf course of the Steubenville country club, three miles north of the city, while making a landing at 10:40 o'clock today. He flew to Steubenville from Bellaire today.

"Narrow escape from death," said Lieutenant Swan, when he arrived at War Savings headquarters after his machine had been wrecked.

He said strong cross winds forced landing. The pilot endeavored to avoid the bunker mound but the engine refused to respond and the plane struck it with terrific force stripping the landing gear and smashing the wings. Fortunately the machine after rising from the earth after the collision dropped again and remained right side up.

Lieutenant Swan telegraphed to William Wright field for another plane and will continue the flight to East Liverpool and other cities scheduled.

Both were coming South on Fourth street and the boy attempted to turn west on Locust when the car struck him. Hammond stopped the car and carried the boy to Dr. Miller's office where an examination showed he was badly bruised about the face and shoulders, one ear cut and finger smashed.

The fact that Hammond was driving slowly probably saved the boy from being killed.

The bicycle was almost demolished and Hammond paid the boy for the damage.

LETTER CARRIER IN W. S. S. CONTEST

JAMES G. COOPER.

The War Savings Stamp committee has inaugurated a friendly contest among the mail-carriers of Licking county, the prize being a trip to Mackinac Island next summer with all expenses paid. So far five letter-carriers have entered. The first Newark carrier to join the contest is James G. Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cooper, who live near Pataskala.

Mr. Cooper has always lived in this county. In 1904 he was graduated from the Pataskala high school, then for two years he taught a country school. Thirteen years ago he came to Newark to enter government service. Mr. Cooper has carried mail to all parts of Newark. His home is at 209 North Gay street. Other carriers in the contest, with more to follow, are: C. F. Aisbach of St. Louisville; Ray E. Crawford of Hanover; Paul L. Parsons of Johnstown; and Oscar L. Foster of Johnstown. The contest ends in August.

McLAUGHLIN REACHES CAMP.

Among the contingent of wounded soldiers to arrive at Camp Sherman today from Newport News was L. B. McLaughlin of this city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McLaughlin of 454 Granville street.

MANUFACTURERS' CLUB.

The Newark Manufacturer's club held a special meeting at the O'Neill restaurant in the Warden Hotel last night. These meetings are held at stated times to promote fellowship among the members. Last night the discussion of the adoption of the new time was held and the manufacturers decided to adopt the new time.

LECTURE.

Rev. Father O'Boyle will lecture at St. Francis de Sales church on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock on "Science and Revealed Truth."

Chinese Children at Play.

Chinese boys and girls are just a flood of toys and games as the children of other lands, although to look at their solemn little faces you would hardly think so. The little Chinese boy has a big pocket in the front of his pinafore that he loves to fill with all sorts of things—bits of string, a top, coins and especially candy. His sweetmeats are very hard, some of them like our rock candy, but they taste good to him. He also likes the queer nuts, melon seeds and bits of sugar cane that he buys in the streets from a man who goes round with two baskets hanging from a pole that he carries across his shoulders. The toys that the children buy, also from a man in the street, are generally cheap figures of animals or of human beings, made of clay or paper.

Gold From the Floor.

At one time the great fish-canning concerns simply turned the hose on the floor and washed the offal into the river. Then a brain-wave seized one man. There must be quantities of oil in that offal, he argued. So a refining plant was erected, with the result that 30,000 gallons of oil were obtained from the fish offal in 12 months. Sixty tons of offal are dealt with every day when the canneries are operating, and the oil is shipped to New York. Even then the offal is not finished with. The residue becomes guano, which is dried out and shipped to California, where it realizes a good price on account of its value as a fertilizer of fruit trees.

Good Advice to Fathers.

Bishop McHardy once related the incident of an American millionaire who was congratulated on his world-wide success, and replied bitterly, "What's the use of it all, when your son is a fool?" He had been too busy making money and indulging his family to get close to his own boy. In contrast was the clergyman with seven sons, who was honored with a doctor's degree by a western college. He had reared so many boys that he could not tell the first lesson he should learn daily at four o'clock, when the father for a name of nobility, said: "The bishop urged the son present to be the big brother of their boys."

Cat's Value Regulated.

There is a story concerning the March of the cats, which tells that, long ago, the cats were ruled by the Catbishops, who charged a fee of a cat was set by law. One of these old laws reads as follows: "The price of a kitten is one penny; if a penny after it can see, before it catches a mouse, two pence; and after it catches a mouse, four pence."

The prince went into the park two days later, but no cats were seen, so he was angry.

YANKEES REFUSE OLD GUNS OFFERED BY HUN

(Associated Press Correspondence) Coblenz, March 11.—Eighty big calibre German guns refused by the United States receiving commission because they did not meet certain modern standards have been sold to a Coblenz foundry and are soon to be made into term implements and other peace-time machinery.

While some of these cannon were cast as long ago as 1870, all had been used at some time or another in the recent war, several of them having done duty against the Americans in the Argonne drive in November. After the guns had been refused by the American members of the German delivering commission requested that they be permitted to dispose of the war material to a foundry. The request was granted with the understanding that the cannon would quickly be melted into pig iron and that none of this in any way would be used for the manufacture of any kind of fire arms. Virtually all of the material which the Germans were to turn over to the Americans according to the terms of the armistice has been delivered.

STEPS FROM CURB LEG IS FRACTURED

The condition of Clarence Johnson, aged 19, son of Mrs. William Thompson, 423 North Fourth street, is serious. He underwent an operation in his right leg eleven years ago which left the leg about four inches shorter than the other.

Last Saturday he stepped off the curb in front of the Trust building and the bone of his left leg snapped and he suffered a compound fracture. It is feared he will have to undergo a second operation.

BONFIRES TO GIRD WORLD WHEN PEACE IS SIGNED

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, March 29.—The suggestion of Sir Robert Baden Powell, head of the British boy scouts that the millions of boy scouts throughout the world celebrate the signing of peace by a world round chain of bonfires, has been adopted by the boy scouts of America, it was announced here today by the national headquarters of the organization. The 367,000 boy scouts in the United States will light bonfires in all sections of the country on the night the treaty is signed and hold appropriate ceremonies.

Fire will be taken before hand from the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor and the flame will be carried as far as possible in sailing ships "Liberty Beacons" the announcement said.

Of Course Not.

Bruce's father has told him much of his Scottish ancestry—especially of the bravery of the soldiers. And Bruce has studied pictures of the soldiers in kilts until he knows their customs very well. Also he has heard much of the various plaids of the clans. Recently Aunt Nell brought home a beautiful piece of plaid silk goods. "I'm going to have it made into a regular Mac-Tavish costume," she told her sister. Bruce opened his eyes. One of his favorite kilties was a MacTavish. He waited until auntie was gone; then he went to mother. "Oh, mother," he said, "is Aunt Nellie going to let her knees show, too?"

The Emerald.

The emerald has been known since early times both in Europe and in certain parts of the Orient, where its attractive color and rarity have endowed it with the highest rank and varied lore. Its name may be traced back to an old word which appears in Greek as smaragdus, mentioned by Theophrastus over 300 years before the Christian era, and again in Latin as smaragdus, seen in the writings of Pliny, who particularized somewhat on its properties and supposed medicinal virtues, and was even shrewd enough to suspect its identity with the much more common beryl, although eighteen centuries elapsed before this suspicion was verified by scientific proof.

Cleopatra's Gallery in Literature.

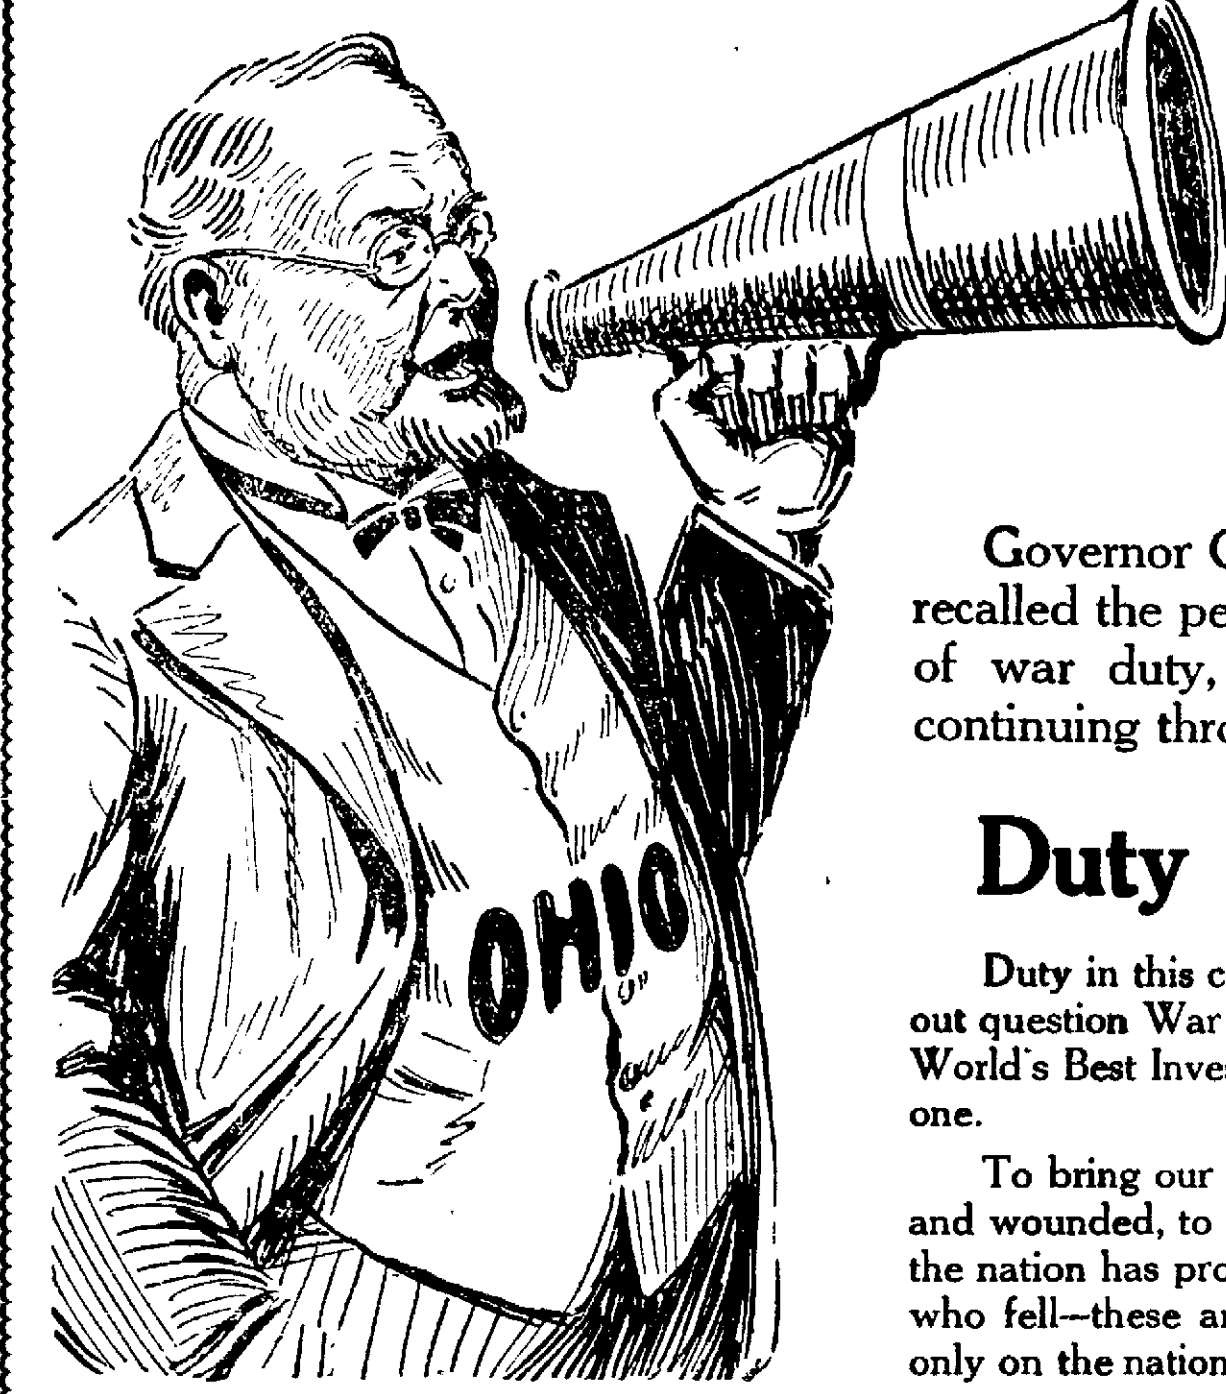

Civilization advances by epochs. History is full of these measured climaxes, some of which have taken place on the land, some on the sea and some in the air. The climaxes on the sea, which are full of romance and mystery, have given inspiration to both artist and poet alike. Claude Lorraine, with his magic brush, idealized the gallery of the Egyptian queen in his splendid painting, "The Landing of Cleopatra at Tarsus." Turner preserved for posterity "The Old Teller," one of the sailing vessels that helped Nelson to play his brilliant part at Trafalgar. Equally famous is his painting of "Ulysses Deriding Polyphemos," which portrays an incident taken from Homer's "Odyssey." Spenser, too, in his famous drama of "Anthony and Cleopatra," paints in glowing words the story of the shameless act of Cleopatra's gallery at the naval battle of Actium.

Houses Without Nails.

In Alberta, Canada, there exists a village where no nails have been used in the construction of the houses. These were built by Ruthenian immigrants, and are of the typical Ruthenian style—long, pitched-roofed, thatched and wide in the eaves. Even the door, an affair of slender twigs, woven and laced together, swings on home-made hinges and is latched with a wooden bap. The floor is of heavy logs unplaned. The roof is a wonderful fabric of poles and cross-wooden rafters, ten inches thick, packed tightly and solidly, and laid with such care that it will endure any weather for 20 years.

Silverware can be furnished by a machine invented by a Swiss in hand less than the time required for making work by expert workers.

To The People of Licking County Ohio Is Calling YOU!

Ohio Is Calling YOU!

Governor Cox has, by a proclamation, recalled the people of Ohio to a renewal of war duty, beginning March 17 and continuing throughout the year.

Duty Is Profitable

Duty in this case is profitable as well, for without question War Savings Stamps are not only the World's Best Investment, but also its most popular one.

To bring our soldiers home, to care for the sick and wounded, to help the maimed, and to do all the nation has promised for the dependents of those who fell—these are sacred obligations, resting not only on the nation, but on every one of its citizens.

Duty Is Privilege

When that duty consists of lending money in any amount up to $328.00, which purchases the limit in 1919 stamps in March and lending it at good interest (4.27%) on the best security, without tax reduction, and with the money available in ten days, it becomes a privilege as well.

Your privilege, then, is to care for your soldiers by making a safe and profitable investment—a privilege that is a profitable duty.

A Happy Habit

Regardless of your purchases last year, you may own $1000 in face value this year. Take that amount now if you can; if you cannot do so much, do all you can this week. Keep Ohio to the front; keep up your county's record; and add to your own strength by making thrift a happy habit, expressed in the government's tax free securities.

Organize "Bring 'Em Back" Clubs

Already more than 100 "Bring 'Em Back" clubs have been organized in Licking County. The children of the Mound School have formed a "Big Brothers'" club and pupils and teachers of Central school have honored two former Central school boys, Robert Kuster and Willis Doyle, by naming clubs in their honor. See the names of soldiers and sailors posted upon the Court House park bulletin boards. This list is growing. It should contain the name of every man in service. Let none be forgotten. Get an application blank and form a club in honor of your soldier or sailor friend or relative. Pledges amounting to 100 stamps are required to form a club. One may buy the stamps himself or secure pledges from others for all or part. For blanks telephone Auto 23124.

Those who bought 200 W. S. S. in 1918 and nearly 700 Licking County people did so, are privileged to buy 200 stamps of the 1919 issue. W. S. S. are tax free and pay 4.27% if held till maturity though they may be cashed at any time upon 10 days' notice. W. S. S. never go below par. Uncle Sam guarantees it. The price advances next Tuesday from $4.14 to $4.15. Buy W. S. S. tonight or Monday at the March price.

TWINS TOSS COIN TO SEE WHICH LEAVES FOR ACTIVE SERVICE

Camp Sherman, March 29.—One's Mike and other's Neil, but which is which the officers and men at Camp Sherman can't tell.

The soldiers in question are twins, Neil and Mike L. Shea, who were brought to camp last fall with a draft contingent from Green Bay, Wisconsin. Literally they are as alike as two peas. The top sergeant of their company told them apart only on the circumstantial evidence that Mike's right shoe is on the toe. That was the only difference.

Many a time they worked the mistaken identity stunt, and many a time were the members of their company dumfounded to tell one from the other. Every few days, the said, the twins changed shoes, thereby further confusing their identity. Each answered to the others name until finally there really was no difference between them.

One fine day early last fall the company was lined up and an officer appeared with a long typewritten list in his hand, the names of soldiers chosen for overseas duty.

"As your name is called, step one pace to the front," ordered the officer, and the company fell into a breathless silence as it awaited the reading of the fateful list of the chosen few—the elect, the lucky.

"Mike L. Shea," was the first name called by the officer.

Then it was that a strange thing occurred. As at a given signal, two soldiers stepped one pace to the front and came to attention. Someone in the ranks tittered.

"Mike L. Shea," repeated the officer. He did not like to have the old mistaken identity joke carried too far.

"Which one of you is Mike?" he thundered. "Speak up!"

"I am, sir," answered a duet in perfect harmony. "The officers face became a deeper hue.

"Which one of these is Mike?" the officer inquired of the top sergeant. The sergeant turned. He knew which was which. These things had happened before. He gazed not at their faces, but at their shoes. The toe of one of the soldiers shoes had a patch on it. He turned and saluted the officer.

"This one's Mike," he said. Both twins wore a peculiar dumfounded look. The captain pointed to the one with no patches on his shoes, and ordered him back into the ranks, threatened him with kitchen police duty.

Now, a soldier of the command tells a strange story. He claims that on going into the barracks building shortly afterwards he was a witness to one of the strangest games of chance with the strangest things at stake that one can imagine.

Two soldiers alike as peas sat on a cot. One of them held a coin, ready to flip.

"Oh no you don't," heads I'm Mike and tails you're Mike." And so it was settled. The coin was flipped and it fell motionless on the floor.

A few minutes later the soldiers hastily changed shoes and one of them threw his belongings into a kit bag and reported to the captain. The officer satisfied himself that the soldier wore shoes, one of which contained a patch on the toe. Thereupon, that soldier started on the long trip to France and the other twin remained in camp and is still here.

The other day Mike or Neil got a letter from across the seas from Mike or Neil. He's coming back soon, and not until he does get back will the curiosity of the members of the old command be satisfied—if the boys care to tell them.

Which one is with Company E, 364th Infantry, in France, and which one is a member of the Base Hospital Detachment, Camp Sherman is still a mystery. The one at Camp Sherman just grins!

CARDINAL MERCIER IS ANXIOUS TO VISIT U. S.

New York, March 29.—Cardinal Mercier of Belgium, is planning a visit to the United States within the next few months, according to a statement made today by William J. Mulligan, chairman of the Knights of Columbus committee on war activities.

Mr. Mulligan, on his recent trip abroad, visited the cardinal at Malines and invited him to be the guest in this country of the Knights of Columbus. The cardinal then told him that his visit was certain and expressed a keen desire to make the trip.

Cardinal Mercier, Mr. Mulligan said, wants to come to the United States to express personally his appreciation of what this country has done. The cardinal said he wanted to see our big cities and mentioned Chicago especially. Mr. Mulligan said he did not think the cardinal wanted to make his visit here in the heated season but in the spring and fall.

CZECHS TO GET HAMBURG FOR OUTLET TO SEA

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, March 29.—Hamburg and Stettin are considered the natural commercial outlets to the sea for Czechoslovakia, according to a decision reached today by the commission on the international regime of waterways, ports and railways. This action, which grants the demands of the Czechoslovak delegates to the peace conference, would provide, if finally approved, that the new republic enjoy every privilege as to foreign commerce at the two ports as if they actually belonged to it.

Czechoslovak trade would reach Hamburg and Stettin through the Elbe and Oder rivers on boats flying the Czechoslovak colors. In addition to these craft the republic would be allowed to possess a merchant sea fleet.

The same privilege would be extended to Switzerland regarding navigation of the Rhine and the operation of merchant vessels.

EVERY COUNTY REPRESENTED IN W. S. S. LAKE TRIP CONTESTANTS

Contest Expected to Heighten Interest in Sale of Little Bonds—Committee Offering Free Course in Salesmanship.

Columbus, O.—(Special).—Mail carriers—city and rural—in every county of the state have entered the "Trip to Mackinac" contest being conducted by the Ohio War Savings Committee. The contest primarily is being carried on for the purpose of increasing statewide interest in the sale of War Savings Stamps.

In addition to the one trip to each county offered by the state W. S. S. committee, local firms or individuals are offering additional trips, so that from most Ohio counties several mail carriers will be aboard the War Savings steamer as it leaves Toledo in August on its week's tour of the Great Lakes.

First lessons in the correspondence salesmanship course—offered without cost to all mail carriers in the state—are being issued from the state W. S. S. office. Study of these is expected to facilitate the carriers' sales ability.

FACTS ABOUT W. S. S. THE WORLD OVER

War Savings Certificates were adopted and first issued in England during the spring of 1916. In the United States War Savings Stamps were first issued in December, 1917.

In Great Britain nearly 300,000,000 stamps have been sold since 1916 to January, 1919, bringing in approximately $1,100,000,000.

Approximately $1,015,000,000 worth of War Savings Stamps were sold in the United States from December, 1917, to Dec. 31, 1918.

W. S. S. in forms similar to those of the United States and Great Britain exist in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, India and Japan.

Opportunity Is Knocking At The Door of Newark

The only way for a city to hold its population is to maintain industries that will give employment to men.

The only way for a city to increase its population is to expand its present industries or bring in new industries.

In either event it all depends upon the interest taken by its citizens, and the amount of co-operation given when an opportunity presents itself.

The Newark Stamping & Foundry Co. is bringing to Newark an added industry that will more than double its present business, and employ more than twice the number of men now employed, and will pay out more than twice as much in wages.

Last year this Company paid out $60,000.00 in wages, and we are advised that there are not more than six other concerns in Newark at the present time that have such an average payroll.

The Newark Stamping & Foundry Co. is enlarging its plant in order to take care of its new business, which is the manufacture of the famous May-Fieberger furnace, formerly made in Akron.

It will be necessary to increase its capital stock in order to provide for the expense of bringing this new enterprise to Newark.

The J. N. Pugh Co. is offering the 7% cumulative preferred stock of the Newark Stamping & Foundry Co. at the par value of $100.00 per share, and same is free from personal taxes in Ohio.

All enterprising citizens of Newark and vicinity who are seeking a safe and conservative investment in a strictly home enterprise are invited to call on The J. N. Pugh Co. for particulars.

Let each dollar you invest be the means of bringing three more dollars into Newark. That's the way to keep Newark alive.

CASUALTY LIST BRINGS FATHER AND SON TOGETHER AFTER 15-YEAR SEARCH AND DAUGHTER IS FOUND IN SAME WEEK

Andrew Hunsacker with his long-lost son, John, and his daughter, Laundia.

The war has united and made happy one family instead of separating it. Andrew Hunsacker of Cincinnati, Ohio, has just found his son, John, who had been missing for seventeen years, and a week later he found his daughter, Laundia. He had been searching for both of them for fifteen of the seventeen years. Circumstances forced the father to place the children in an orphanage when they were small and when he was in a position to reclaim them he could find no trace of them. His search ended the other day. One day he read his son's name in the paper in the casualty list among those gassed. As soon as the son was invalided home there was a happy reunion, and the daughter, reading of the meeting, discovered that she had a father and brother living, and within a week the three were happily united.

YOU CAN MAKE YOUR SHOE BILLS LESS

From Globe, Arizona, comes this recommendation of Neolin Soles. J. B. Medlyn sends it. He says: "I have never had my Neolin-soled shoes repaired as the soles always outwear the tops. The position I hold keeps me on my feet most of the time, and I can say that for comfort and wear Neolin is the only shoe sole."

Millions of others who have worn Neolin Soles think with Mr. Medlyn that they are the only soles for wear and comfort. Moreover, these soles cut your shoe bills down because they make your shoes last so long. They are waterproof too. Neolin Soles are made scientifically by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write to me, Eugene M. Pallen, Carpenter, 5716 Marcellus Avenue, Massapequa, N. THE YOUNG OFFICERS.
The government has been asking considerable groups of the drafted soldiers to give their opinions in regard to their experience in the army service. Among the reports received are many which criticize the "overbearing conduct seen in some young officers."
"We have to have discipline in the army" is the way one man puts it, "but not as some of these 90 day lieutenants seem to think."
The young officer placed in command of men older than he, has a problem in human adjustment to work out. Very likely they have had more experience of life than he, and more common sense. He will never solve his problem by a policy of freezing dignity and arbitrary harshness. He may get the formal obedience of his men. But he will not win the hearty loyalty without which an officer will never get a body of men to do him full credit.
He has got to work to secure both the respect and admiration of his men. He must be firm and must cultivate quick decision. But he must constantly be thinking how he can care for their comfort and health, and help meet the hazards and exposures of the service. He must make sure he is fair and just.
When soldiers begin to see that a commander is keenly interested in their welfare, they begin to develop personal loyalty, even though he is younger than they and though his discipline may be unwavering. Then they will begin to do things for him that they would never do for the harsh and overbearing officer. When a military body acquires that frame of mind toward its officers, it begins to attract attention as a finely disciplined body of troops. The officers begin to get promotions, and the best of the privates are moved up to take their places.
While millions of people in big cities are agitating against the low wages, poor food, bad air, and disease of the slums, out in the country you can't have help for the faithful and will feel job of farming.
The government is said to have 2,000,000 tooth brushes left over out of the war supplies, but the Bolsheviks haven't yet demanded to have them divided up on a commutative basis.
Indolent gardeners write that he is going to ask the government to plant one of those depth bombs in his garden while he sits on the porch and watches it work up the old hard soil.
Anyway, if the German government goes on preparing for war for 40 years more, the other nations will head up with something besides beanshoots and popguns.
Women who did war work, it is said are now ready to go back to their homes. Not so much money, but some satisfaction to be the boss.

MILK DISTRIBUTION.
In some towns of but a few thousand population, twenty or thirty milk dealers, each doing a little business, are trotting up and down the streets covering each others tracks. The total effort is greater than is necessary. The high price of milk has been one of the problems of the war period. It has restricted the amount consumed. Infants have suffered from the lack of supplies, which parents could not afford. Many milk producers have sold their herds. They claim that at the high price of labor and feed they were not making anything.
It is interesting to see producers moving to see if the cost of distribution can not be reduced. A report from one such effort is published covering the action of producers in several of the towns in Schenectady county, New York.
Distribution in the city of Amsterdam, N. Y., has been in the hands of 20 men, at an average expense for each of about $3,000 a year. The producers figure that 10 men, by cutting out all interlocking and duplicating routes, and sending one man to cover a whole street, could distribute that milk. They believe they can get a higher price for the milk, and get it to the consumer for less money. They have been getting only 7 1/2 cents a quart for the milk. There are many places where the producers only get as much as that, while the consumer using the product has to pay double that figure.
Such experiments will be watched with interest. If carried out in a business like way, they should reduce distribution cost.

THE PARTNER SPIRIT.
It is one of the outgrowths of the war that people begin to realize that they are partners in their government, local and national. During the war people said "our army" rather than "the army." They were willing to take hold and do some hard work to keep their war machine working efficiently.
Now if this partner spirit can be maintained and developed in time of peace, it ought to produce some great gains. But people must realize that no partner is likely to succeed in any kind of enterprise until he devotes personal attention to it.
If you guy a share in a grocery store, and never visit that store but once or twice a year, your chances for losing your money are good.
In the same way, when people lose interest in local and general government, and fail to attend to public duties, they get a poor article in government. Negligent voters elect the men who should stay at home. Then they blame the politicians, who may be doing the best they can.
If the people are going to carry the partner spirit into peace times, they should at least do these things:
1.—Vote at all elections and primaries.
2.—Attend public meetings where matters of government, local and general are discussed.
3.—Read carefully such newspapers and magazines as they can afford, particularly all news about government and politics.
4.—Talk politics frequently with their neighbors to get other people's ideas.
If the partner spirit could thus be carried into all public affairs, there would be intelligent voting, the best men would be surer of success at the polls, and there would be business efficiency in politics.

Columbus: A girl who came into the restaurant of Charles Sinis often had made an acquaintance with him. She admired a diamond ring that he wore, valued at $300. While he prepared her order Sinis allowed her to admire the ring. Presently excusing herself by saying she had a friend in the apartments above who wished to eat too, she departed with the ring. After a lengthy wait Sinis began to worry. She called him on the telephone, telling him she felt ill but would send the ring back later. Hours elapsed and finally he called the police and it was learned the girl had removed her baggage; also her friend had left.

THE BOY SCOUTS
Last Sunday about sixteen scouts, under the leadership of the Assistant Scoutmasters, Gilbert and Myers, took a hike along the Granville pike as far as the Dug Way. Here a halt was called and different scout maneuvers were practiced; also games were played. Before starting back the scouts ate their lunches (after cooking them) which they had had the forethought to carry with them.
The regular meeting on Monday was called to order by Mr. Myers and the oath repeated in unison.
Mr. Franklin spoke to the boys about the annual camping trip in the summer vacation and advised them to earn their money and get the necessary equipment together before the time came to start. He also advised them to get prepared for the Victory Loan, but, as has been demonstrated, this advice was hardly necessary as the boys already were prepared.
After the general meeting the boys were drilled and Assistant Scoutmaster Gilbert gave them a few stiff setting-up exercises.
The recreation hour followed, and, from the noise, everyone seemed to be having a good time.

Readers' Viewpoint
Daylight-Saving Law.
Editor of The Advocate—Shall Newark obey the federal law for saving daylight or not? This can best be answered by another question: Has Newark any voice in the matter? Is it not a federal law to be obeyed like any other United States law? Will not all the other cities running on eastern time be obliged to set their clocks forward one hour on March 30? How can Newark consider itself exempt from obeying this law—or any United States law for that matter? Do Newark people fully realize the wonderful advantage of an extra hour of daylight during the summer months? Think of getting all the hard work done in the early part of the day and then having an extra hour of daylight for recreation—like reading, motoring and working in the garden. Think of the saving in light bill and stove oil, to the city. It is a wonderful gift of an hour of daylight for leisure which many will appreciate if they once enjoy its advantages.

George R. Agnew to William H. Miner, lot 47 in Idlewild Park addition, $1, etc.

Bert O. Horton to David R. Harri-man, part of outlot $4 in Fifth street, $1, etc.

Molting Process Important. Crabs and caterpillars represent a host of creatures wherein growth is impossible without molting. The material of which their skin is composed is inelastic and cannot admit of growth. As a consequence frequent changes of skin are imperative. How a crab manages to wriggle out of its strong case is something of a mystery, but the process entails a severe strain on the vitality and exposes the newly molted body to grave perils, since for a time the new skin is quite soft and hence neither escape from enemies by flight nor defense by the usual grip of the great pincers is possible till the hardening process is complete.

Strange Plant. A little plant called the adoxa or meschale is often found in Welsh hedgerows, and is (writes a naturalist) the only species of its genera in that country. The leaves have this peculiarity that whilst they emit a delightful musk-like odor, when handled or crushed they become absolutely scentless.

ELECTRICAL DEALERS BANQUET. The Avery-Loeb company entertained the electrical dealers of the city with a banquet at McDaniel's restaurant last night. The members of the Columbus firm were in attendance.

Important District Gatherings. What has been done through Ohio club women and the lessons to be drawn therefrom along with federated affairs generally and "Americanization" in particular—these are the high lights in the various coming conventions of Ohio districts.

At the second annual conference of the Central district, Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs at Newark, April 2 and 3, George F. Burba, editor of the Columbus Dispatch, will talk on "Americanization." A keen observer and a fluent speaker, Editor Burba will bring to the club women assembled at Newark a notable message. On Thursday's program with Mr. Burba will be other splendid speakers, including Mrs. Prentice E. Root of Toledo, president of the State Federation, whose topic is "Our Federation," and Miss Lillian H. Stone of Cincinnati, who has been assigned to the subject, "Kindergartens." Music will be one of the features of the convention.

The annual southwest district conference will be held at Middletown, April 4 and 5 in the First M. E. church, Fifth and Broadway. The program will be complete with suggestions for club units, regardless of varying lines of work, and well qualified speakers will discuss topics of broad interest.

The principal speakers are Mrs. Root, Mrs. Cornelius Selover, of Cleveland, vice president at large, who will conduct a parliamentary question box; Dr. William Foster Pierce, president of Kenyon college, who went to France on a mission of inspection for the Red Cross and whose subject will be "America's Opportunity for World Service," and Lester Evans, regional director of the United States school garden army.

"The Inspection Material" is the term applied to the subject matter that will be dealt with at the Northwestern district meeting at Lima, Apr. 8 and 9. The entire program is one of which club women may well feel proud. It is formidable in every respect.

Stick a Pin in This. Heads and pearl trimming that can be snapped apart, will be most welcome to sick soldiers at Camp Sherman. While waiting to be declared well enough to go out into civil life these heroes find that time drags. They do hardest work and beautiful head wear. It is light and pleasant work and even soldiers who are still confined to their sick beds enjoy it. Then flower seeds and plants, especially pansy plants and daisies, baby shrubs, wisteria, hardy hydrangea, purple and white hollyhocks are particularly welcome. Club women will be doing a great kindness by sending to Camp Sherman heads, flower seeds and plants.

All Should Respond Promptly. Every club that has not yet sent in its war victory fund contribution is urged to do so at once. Mrs. Flood, the state president, is desirous of making a full report at the council meeting in May. If each club of twenty-five would send five dollars only, and other clubs $10 or more—according to membership—Ohio would more than give her share of cost of maintaining these young women who have been overseas.

Club Women Back These. Club women everywhere are behind the teachers' tenure bill. The measure insures nothing more than justice and a greater degree of real democracy in control of the public schools. It will free teachers from the depressing and stultifying influence of uncertainty as to employment from year to year and attract greater numbers of men and women to the profession. Ohio club women favor these tenure bills.

Senate Bill, No. 71. known as the street trades measure, is also heartily endorsed by club women. Mrs. Flood would have you write your representative asking them to support these bills.

Our Boys and Girls

To make a high chair that a child can use to sit up to the table is an easy matter. Screw four deer lampers into the legs of an ordinary chair. This is a good idea when a child has outgrown his high chair or has passed it on to his little baby sister or brother. If the lampers are stained like the chair frame they will not be noticed.

Teach politeness to the children from the very first. Teach the boy that he must take off his hat to his elders, his mother or women or girls. Teach him that he must never remain seated when another person is standing, or he other than helpful, willing and gracious with age.

It is no longer the thing to say "Yes, Ma'am" when mother, father or grandparent speak but the rule now is to be as deferential as possible. "Yes, Ma'am" is a grandmotherly way of saying "yes" and should be put, and when a woman is in trouble her name should be respectfully repeated as the best way for her to get out of it—ideas.

Shrewd Poppers. I had a dozen popovers, brown, golden, fluffy, and the softest thing I ever tasted, and all from smarter than you can be.

I don't doubt the recipe, said the prominent husband, that of my wife, and get out of it—ideas.

Mrs. W. W. Barker

Box 52, South Shafsbury, Vt., writes a Pitiful Story of Childhood Suffering and tells how her son was Finally Brought to Strong, Robust Manhood.

PRIVATE C. W. BARKER
Amex. France

"Dr. Hartman treated my son for Syntonic Catarrh and catarrh of the large and small intestines. He had many doctors but no worse until he began to take PE-RU-NA. Every one told my son to die, but PE-RU-NA saved him. My son was born with catarrh of the stomach and at sixteen he was poisoned in a picture works. They treated him for everything but he grew worse. We were told to take him to the hospital for treatment. Being poor we could not do this. About that time I saw PE-RU-NA advertised in an almanac.

My boy was then eighteen years old and sick in bed with LaGrippe from which he was not expected to recover. In seven weeks from the time he began to take PE-RU-NA, he gained thirty-five pounds and improved right along. We kept all of Dr. Hartman's Remedies in the house and if we are sick, we use them. We seldom call a doctor. My son takes PE-RU-NA every Spring and Fall for a tonic."

MRS. W. W. BARKER,
Box 52, South Shafsbury, Vt.

Milady's Boudoir

Delightful Baths.

The delicately perfumed baths of the women of ancient Rome are no longer a mystery to us, and we can improve a subtle fragrance to our baths by the use of the very mixtures they compounded. There is a delightful scent to be obtained by mixing together flowers, herbs and bran in the following proportions: Marshmallow or lavender flowers, 1/2 pound; hyssop herb, 1/4 of a pound; and bran, 4 pounds. Mix these ingredients together and put the mixture in small, square bags of cheese-cloth.

Another bath sachet which also possesses the virtues of a tonic is made as follows: Bromide of potassium, 1 gram; carbonate of lime, 1 gram; carbonate of soda, 500 grains; sulphate of soda, 5 sulphate of alumina, 1 gram; sulphate of iron, 3 grains; olive oil, 1 gram; oil of thyme, 1 gram; and oil of rosemary, 1 gram. This will make a sufficient quantity for two baths, and the proportions must be increased according to the number of baths, or more baths. Like the bran mixture, it may be put into cheese-cloth bags so it will not clog the drain-pipes.

Oatmeal bags, used frequently in the bath water, will whiten the skin by constantly rubbing a delicate fragrance. To compound the mixture use oatmeal, 2 pounds; powdered boronite, 1 pound; powdered castile soap, 1/2 pound. Fill square cheese-cloth bags with the oatmeal mixture and throw them into the bath water half an hour before you take your bath.

After the bath, particularly if your body is not well covered with flesh, it will be necessary to massage the body with a nourishing oil. Pure olive or almond oil is excellent for this purpose. Place a small quantity of the oil in the whole surface of the body. Cocconni your palm and gently massage the oil and coconut butter also excellent for massaging the skin.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BEL

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

There's the same economy in using the one-ton Ford truck that there is in using the Ford car—only the larger carrying power of the truck commends it particularly to farmers, and other business men. The famous Model T motor assures reliable power and lots of it; the manganese bronze worm drive makes certain the use of all that power; the three-point suspension gives flexibility, and vanadium steel strength. THE OLD HOME GIVES TO CARRIERS FINE POCKETBOOKS

The Home Building Association of Newark, E. M. Baughner, president; Charles C. McGunder, secretary—is today presenting to the Newark city and the rural mail-carriers of Licking county leather pocketbooks made especially for their convenience in carrying Thrift and War Savings Stamps. The pocket or billbooks are made of a good grade of black leather and are lettered in gold with the owner's name and address. There is a compartment for war savings certificates, for currency and for coin and special enclosures for Thrift and War Savings stamps. The "Old Home," which sold more than $107,000 worth of W. S. S. last year to its patrons, shows its continued interest in this government loan by having these leather pocketbooks and presenting them to the mail-carriers who are giving much of their time and effort to the sale of War Savings stamps without extra compensation.

So far five mail-carriers are entered in the Mackinac Island W. S. S. contest: C. F. Alsop, St. Louisville; Ray H. Crawford, Haverhill; James C. Stinner, Newark; Paul L. Parsons, Johnstown; Oscar L. Foster, Johnstown. Every mail-carrier in Licking county is invited to join in this friendly contest.

Incomplete returns for the week ending March 27 show the cash sale of W. S. S. to be in excess of $12,000. The postoffice sales for the week were $11,321 and the five banks so far reporting have sold $2329. This makes the total for the year to March 27, $122,705.

Hugh E. Jones of Granville, is the organizer of the Curtis N. Jones club of Pataskala. Mr. Jones is with Company E, 39th engineers, A. E. F., A. F. O. 761.

A. A. Lake, 14 Roe avenue, has honored Dewey W. Lake, R. F. D. 4, Newark, by forming the Dewey W. Lake club. Mr. Lake is stationed in Texas with Battery E, 4th P. A., Camp Scurry.

The Corporal Walter Thompson club has been organized by Plus Dean, 171 Clinton street. Corporal Thompson's address is: Battery D, 324th P. A. H., A. P. O. 754, A. E. F.

The Phi Sigma Chi fraternity has formed a club in honor of Corporal Harry Russell, regimental headquarters, First Prov. Reg., American Embarkation Center, A. P. O. 175, A. E. F.

A friend organized two "Bring 'Em Back" clubs this morning in honor of Russell R. Sharp, sea-going school, receiving barracks, Paris Island, S. C., and Edward T. Davis, headquarters, 20th ammunition train, A. E. F.

Look at the names of Licking county soldiers and sailors posted upon the courthouse park bulletin boards. Is the name of that particular soldier or sailor there? If not, why not? Telephone 25124 Auto for a "Bring 'Em Back" application blank, or send to W. S. S. headquarters. Buy 100 W. S. S. or secure pledges from your friends for 100 stamps. That's all that is necessary to form a club in honor of a soldier or a sailor.

Monday will be your last chance to buy a War Savings Stamp at $4.14. The prices advance to $4.15 on April 1.

The Powers of Youth.
Disraeli said, "The history of heroes is the history of youth." That does not mean that nothing heroic can be done by men of mature years. Certainly history has much to say of men in middle life and old age that refutes such claims. What it does say is that the spirit of youth makes possible every great achievement. In some this spirit awakens slowly, coming to fruition only in middle life or old age. They are the exception. With most boys it bursts into power in the teens. The wild visions, elaborate plans and annoying pranks are only indications of potentialities. Properly encouraged they form the irresistible force of making manhood.

Savage Crabs.
The most savage specimen of the crab species is found in Japan. The minute he spies another of his kind he scrapes his claws together in a rage, challenging him to combat. Not a moment is wasted in preliminaries, but at it they go hammer and tongs. It sounds like two rocks grinding against one another. The sand flies as the warriors push each other hither and thither, until at length one of them stretches himself out, tired to death, still feebly rubbing his claws together in defiance of the foe. That foe comes closer, catches hold of one claw of the vanquished crab, twists it until it comes off, and bears it away as a trophy of his prowess.

Alaska's Great Glacier.
One of the most remarkable glaciers in the world and the greatest in America is the Muir glacier of Alaska. The main channel of the wonderful body extends back fifty miles into the country and has forty branches. Where it reaches the sea, in Glacier bay, it is two miles across and in places reaches a height of 250 feet above the tide. It reaches a depth of 720 feet below water surface. This gigantic body of ice advances toward the sea at the rate of 2,000 feet a year, and great slabs are constantly breaking off its face and floating away in the form of icebergs. It is estimated that every day 200,000,000 cubic feet of ice drop from its face into the sea—enough ice to last a great city like Chicago for a year.

Copper's Great Value.
Next after gold and silver, copper is to us the most interesting of all the metals. Fresh and free of corrosion (as seen in a new-mined cent) it is really more beautiful than gold, having a more colorful and brilliant luster. It is incomparably more useful than gold, serving as it does a vast number of employments for which there is no satisfactory substitute.

THE OLD HOME GIVES TO CARRIERS FINE POCKETBOOKS

Mr. Hoover says that suffering in Serbia and Roumania is beyond description. "I have seen babies wrapped in paper and women barefooted." There are no materials to be had and no facilities for making them. The only solution is to salvage second-hand clothing. The Red Cross has been asked to furnish 10,000 tons for use in Poland, Roumania, France, Belgium and the Far East.

All sorts of clothing for men, women and children are wanted, with the exception of ball dresses, flimsy garments and stiff hats. Bedding is needed as follows: Bedticks, pillowcases, bed sheets and blankets. Clothing need not be in perfect condition but should be serviceable.

Licking county's headquarters, for the assembling of the clothing, will be in the rooms formerly occupied by the James Passman electrical shop, 53 Hudson avenue. This room has been donated to the purpose by Henry Woodbridge. Licking will be in charge of a committee of the Eastern Star of which Mrs. Margaret Mahon is chairman. Please bring garments in early next week as the campaign is to last one week only—March 31 to April 6.

Saving the Birds.
Many lighthouse keepers around the British isles have adopted a splendid plan for saving the migratory birds, by constructing a great many perches and nests beneath the lights. These resting places have sheltered a large number of migrants when wind or fog has overpowered them. The keeper of a lighthouse in the Isle of Wight said that it was now a rare occurrence to pick up dead birds around the light. The smaller birds made good use of the perches. It seems, in fact, that these death-luring lights have been changed into harbors of safety for the birds.

Sunny Dispositions.
I think it was Carlyle who said: "The man who can laugh way down deep in his diaphragm can never commit murder." And he should have added that the man with a whistling disposition can never be mean; abuse a child, betray a friend or refuse to pay his rent.—Fern Howard, in Milwaukee Sentinel.

Billion.
In the United States a billion is a thousand millions. In Great Britain and European countries, the progression runs regularly, tens of millions, hundreds of millions, thousands of millions; tens of thousands of millions, hundreds of thousands of millions, thousands of thousands of millions, billions (that is a million of millions).

Capt. Riggs Says It Saved His Life.

How serious stomach trouble can be, and how Nature with the assistance of a reliable remedy like Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation will restore health, is shown by the remarkable letter below from an 85-year-old man—Capt. J. H. Riggs, of Athens, O.

In April of 1918 I weighed 150 pounds. I began failing and began taking treatments for indigestion, constipation, diabetes, heart trouble, and I know not what else. At the end of eight months' treatment and the time I took to my bed, as I supposed, for the last time, I weighed 107 pounds. I could neither eat, drink nor sleep. What I ate passed through me unabsorbed. I could not eat at least every half hour. When it seemed that my time could be counted by hours, a friend suggested my trying Dr. Parker's Treatment, with the result that I began to improve with the very first dose. I now weigh 145 pounds, am able to do my chores, and can eat and sleep like a young man. I know Dr. Parker's Treatment saved my life.

When a man of his years can be restored to health, why should you suffer from headaches, pain in stomach or bowels, backache, nervousness, insomnia, belching and bloating, poor appetite and sour stomach? Dr. Parker's treatment is guaranteed. Buy a $1 box from any local druggist. If it fails to relieve you we will refund at once.

Probably Astonished Pussy.
A cat has been in the habit of sleeping on a rubber mat under a dynamo in Cleveland's power house. Somebody removed the mat and the cat slept on an iron plate. It didn't seem to hurt the cat, but her fur became so charged with electricity that ever since it has stood stiff on end like the bristles of a hairbrush. 3-29-2t

Understanding Each Other.
Those who fancy themselves not understood by the people with whom they have to associate might find some consolation in the fact that they themselves are not taking any great trouble to understand others. We are really not so complex or peculiar as we often imagine, and perhaps we are no worth so much study as we demand. Exchange. 3-29-1f

Depressing Reflection.
Right always wins, but one can't always wait 500 years to see it do it. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

DIDN'T LOSE TICKET; FRIEND IS NEW YORKER

Friends are wondering whether the "mysterious hollup" of H. T. Simon, a returned soldier of Hebron, was or was not. In Newark, Simon, who was recently discharged at Camp Sherman after being wounded with the Rainbow division in France, told friends that he was held up, robbed of $150 and a railroad ticket. He returned to the home of his sister, Mrs. Elmer Brown, in Hebron, yesterday and Mrs. Brown stated that her brother said nothing of the robbery. But that she helped him to pack and he left for New York Friday night, having purchased his ticket in Newark, Thursday. Simon was going to New York to visit at the home of young woman he met while there. She is not a French girl, according to Mrs. Brown, but is a New Yorker.

WAR SAVINGS STAMP BUYERS FORM 'BRING 'EM BACK' CLUBS

Between 75,000 and 100,000 Ohio Men Remaining in Service — Home Obligations Not Fully Completed.

Columbus, O.—(Special.)—Hundreds of Ohio soldiers, after whom "Bring 'Em Back" War Savings Clubs have been organized throughout the state, are being returned to their homes daily in the arrival of units of the Thirty-seventh division. Still more of these valiant Ohio fighters will be returned to their homes and "opportunities for future and fortune" around the first of May, when the 166th—Rainbow—regiment reaches Ohio. Washington advices declare that 1,500,000 Americans are still in France. The proportion of Ohio soldiers remaining abroad is between 75,000 and 100,000.

Until these men have been returned to their homes the complete obligation of those remaining here is not fulfilled, according to the Ohio War Savings Committee. This obligation is best met by the formation of a "Bring 'Em Back" Club, it is declared. Two dentists in Europe claim to have invented a process for casing false teeth in metal with the uniform density that is necessary.

TAKE THREE DAYS TO WED

Armenian Couple Must Be Patient in the Matter of Tying the Marriage Knot.

In Armenia everybody has a good time at a wedding except the bridegroom. First of all, the friends assemble, and an entertainment, with dancing, takes place. The bridegroom is expected to arrive when the entertainment is in progress and he is considered good form for him to appear with his face covered with powder to simulate pallor induced by the solemnity of the occasion. Friends of the bridegroom then shave him publicly and fall upon him and strip him of all his clothes, after which he is supplied with a new set of garments and completely dressed again. While they are performing the offices of valet to the groom the young men present are supposed to hold lighted candles in their right hands.

The day after this opening marriage feast the bride rides to church, and the bridegroom walks. The priest who receives them in the porch reads a short sermon on their duties in the matrimonial state, and then the wedding party proceeds to the altar, where the foreheads of the high contracting parties are bound together with gold chains. The wedding festivities continue for at least three days after this, and the couple are not regarded as married until the ceremonies have been concluded. The social celebration of the wedding is carried through as conscientiously as the religious part.

COULD NOT DISLODGE ROCK

When Nature Placed Freak on Berkshire Hills, She Evidently Put It There to Stay.

The famous "balanced rock" near Lanesboro, Mass., in the historic Berkshires, is one of the strange sights of this region of hidden mountain caves, snow-capped hills and folklore that rivals fiction. This rock, which weighs several tons, is apparently in a precarious position on the sheer edge of another rocky formation beneath it. One would think that a very slight push indeed would dislodge it from its position.

"Balanced rock" is located on Constitution hill, the eminence named after "Constitution" Smith, who was instrumental in ratifying the American Constitution. An old farmer of Lanesboro thought he could pull "balanced rock" from its position by harnessing up several pairs of oxen, attaching a chain to the rock and having the animals strain on the rock together. The experiment failed. The rock could be rocked back and forth, but could not be dislodged. The ice flow of the glacial period is believed to have been responsible for placing the huge rock in its present position.

Alcohol From Molasses.

Several large concerns are making alcohol from cheap molasses brought from the West Indies. This molasses, which is unseatable, is known as "black strap." The internal revenue chemists have been able, however, to ferment it and to obtain not only alcohol but to use the residue that they get glycerin.

Four lots of "black strap" of 1,000 gallons each subjected to the new process turned out a very excellent quality of glycerin. There are 100 gallons of this clear dynamite glycerin, as it is called, now on exhibition in the treasury department. Samples of it treated with nitric acid by a well-known firm of explosive makers, at the request of the government, produced as good a nitro-glycerin as the market affords.

Nitro-glycerin when incorporated with pulp or other inert substance becomes dynamite. Thus out of the simple sweets of the sugar bowl comes forth the strength which will rend the rock.

Large Market for Rabbit Skins.
There is a market for rabbit skins. Before the recent war an enormous trade was carried on abroad. It is said that Great Britain and Ireland alone produced about thirty million skins annually. Most rabbit skins are sold in bales, by weight, the fur from them being used for felting purposes, and the skins for making glue. The war interrupted the importations from Europe and Australia to such an extent that the price has greatly increased. The better skins are sold by the dozen. When dressed they become the "coney" of the fur trade, often sold under fanciful names. American breeders are raising all kinds of rabbits that produce the best "coney" of the fur shops.

Saw Cuts Steel Billets.

The largest of a number of power hacksaws in one of the British naval factories is stated to weigh three and one-half tons and is driven by a three-horse power electric motor. It cuts through square billets of steel 26 inches thick. Even a cut like this does not wear out the blade, which is suitable for further work after the cut has been made. This machine is estimated to reduce the expense of sawing to one-sixth of the former cost.

Japan's Leading Industry.

Extraordinarily favorable business conditions in Japan and the continued withdrawal of the products of European nations from competition in the markets of Asia and Australia made the year 1917 an extremely profitable one for the spinning industry and firmly fixed it as the leading manufacturing industry of Japan.
